- + There is a clear synergy between the objectives of the analysed documents and objectives of the Programme
- 0 no clear correlation between the objectives of the analysed document
- contradiction between the objectives of the Programme and the objectives of the analysed document

Summary:

The objectives set out in the Programme are generally coherent with the key national strategic documents of countries covered by the Programme. The Program will facilitate implementation of the objectives set out earlier in particular strategic documents of national and regional level. No contradictory areas were identified in relation to the objectives of the analysed strategic documents. Some of them are not fully represented because of the general nature of the Programme and the limited financial scope.
